Office of the Governor

Whereas, Educating our youth to their fullest potential is the principle goal of South Dakota schools; and,

Whereas, Gifted, talented, and creative students need enrichment activities in academics, the arts, leadership, and skill development; and,

Whereas, The university and college environments in South Dakota offer rich sources of educational enrichment opportunities; and,

Whereas, The University of South Dakota has established educational leadership training programs through the School of Education for the education of gifted and talented students and has established a camp for gifted students to offer its resources to young South Dakotans; and,

Whereas, The theme for this year's camp is a quote from Gandhi: "Be the change you wish to see in the world."

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 23–28, 2017, as in South Dakota, and I further extend my appreciation to parents, school faculties, and members of South Dakota's communities who are giving freely of their time, talents, and resources in order to ensure the success of the education of one of our most valuable resources—our gifted and talented students.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.
